

Your degree means you've gained knowledge and relevant skills for diverse careers, so imagine where your degree can take you.

Roles open to me with my degree:

- Agricultural consultant
- Climate change planner
- Community planner
- Conservationist
- Ecological restoration
- Environmental consultant
- Environmental educator
- Pollution prevention
- Recycling coordinator

With continuing education I can be:

- Agricultural technician
- Air/water quality analyst
- Arborist
- Civil engineer
- Climatologist
- Forest ranger
- Geologist
- Horticulturist
- Sustainability officer
- Urban planner

Related jobs in other fields:

- Activist
- Author
- Corporate responsibility advisor
- Ecotourism guide
- Greenhouse operator
- International relief worker
- Logistics manager
- Statistician
- Wildlife biologist

Technical skills:

- Analyze environmental public policy
- Apply ethical principles to environmental analysis
- Create charts and graphs to represent findings
- Record field observations
- Use a variety of equipment in lab and field studies

Professional organizations

Connect and learn more about your career

- American Scientific Affiliation
- Canadian Environmental Network
- Canadian Network for Environmental Education and Communication
- Canadian Scientific & Christian Affiliation
- Canadian Water Resource Association
- Conservation Ontario
- Ecological Society of America
- Endangered Ecosystems Alliance
- Environmental Careers Organization
- National Association of Environmental Professionals \(US\)
- Society for Conservation Biology
- World Environment Center

Transferable skills:

- Analyze data
- Comprehend complex material
- Identify environmental problems
- Maintain precision and accuracy
- Organize and report data
- Problem solving
- Project management
- Research skills
- Test hypotheses

Discover further

Discover current trends, wages and jobs in Canada for the Environmental Studies field.

- Explore your career ideas here
- Find out what Redeemer alumni have done with their degree