

Your degree means you've gained knowledge and relevant skills for diverse careers, so imagine where your degree can take you.

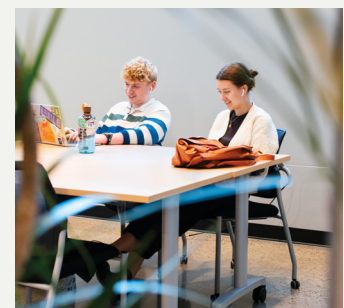

Roles open to me with my degree:

- Health claims reviewer
- Health data clerk
- Health educator
- Lab technician
- Medical administrative assistant
- Public health nutritionist
- Quality assurance officer - healthcare
- Rehabilitation aide
- Research assistant
- Unit communications clerk - healthcare

With continuing education I can be:

- Chiropractor doctor
- Clinical trial manager
- Dietician
- Medical communicator
- Nurse
- Pharmacist
- Professor
- Public health officer
- Speech language pathologist

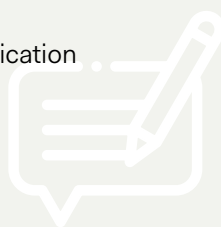

Related jobs in other fields:

- Biotechnology lab technician
- Health policy analyst
- Human resources personnel
- Industrial health and safety specialist
- Intake coordinator
- Medical device reprocessing tech
- Medical equipment sales
- Pharmaceutical sales

Technical skills:

- Biological specimen handling and processing
- Experimental design
- Follow regulatory guidelines
- Hypothesis testing and creation of innovative ideas
- Scientific data analysis and interpretation
- Scientific writing and communication
- Wet lab and field techniques

Transferable skills:

- Collaboration and teamwork
- Critical thinking and development of research questions
- Effective communication (verbal and written)
- Ethics and integrity
- Knowledge translation to scientific and nonscientific communities
- Project development and management
- Self-motivation and time allocation

Professional organizations

Connect and learn more about your career

- AdvantAge Ontario
- Canadian Mental Health Association
- Canadian Public Health Association
- Clinical Research Association of Canada
- Medical Laboratory Professionals' Association of Ontario
- One Health Initiative
- Ontario Medical Association
- Ontario Public Health Association

Discover further

Discover current trends, wages and jobs in Canada for the Health Sciences field

- Explore your career ideas here
- Find out what Redeemer alumni have done with their degree