

Your degree means you've gained knowledge and relevant skills for diverse careers, so imagine where your degree can take you.

Roles open to me with my degree:

- Archeology assistant
- Archives assistant
- Assistant curator
- Civil servant
- Copywriter
- Heritage planner
- Historic site interpreter
- Policy analyst
- Public relations specialist
- Researcher

With continuing education I can be:

- Curator
- Digital archivist
- Human resources professional
- Lawyer
- Librarian
- Paralegal or legal assistant
- Pastor
- Professor
- Project manager
- Teacher

Related jobs in other fields:

- Business manager
- Case worker
- Court clerk
- Data analyst
- Financial planner
- Human rights advocate
- Journalist
- Member service representative
- Politician

Technical skills:

- Assess the merits of various historical theories and arguments
- Explain current events in terms of their historical background
- Formulate historical research questions to answer
- Interpret historical documents accurately
- Understand and evaluate scholarly books and articles
- Understand the history of particular countries and groups
- Write persuasive arguments to expand critical thinking

Transferable skills:

- Assess the credibility of claims through research
- Listen and read carefully and empathetically
- Speak persuasively and confidently in meetings
- Summarize complex topics concisely and accurately
- View people and data in a broader context
- Weigh conflicting arguments and choose logically between them
- Write accurately and clearly

Professional organizations

Connect and learn more about your career

- Canada's National History Society
- Canadian Historical Association
- Canadian Museums Association
- Library and Archives Canada
- National Trust for Canada

Discover further

Discover current trends, wages and jobs in Canada for the History field

- Explore your career ideas here
- Find out what Redeemer alumni have done with their degree

