MEET THE NEEDS OF TODAY AND TOMORROW. Can we help you develop your workforce of the future? Recruiting a Redeemer University College intern is a great opportunity for early identification of talent. Students receive relevant work experience while you, the employer/community partner, benefit from their fresh perspectives.

Students in English study both past and present writers, learning how to read analytically, speak clearly, and write persuasively while furthering their incremental approach to creative, expository and journalistic writing. They develop the ability to critique their own work and mature as writers, acquiring the communication and comprehension skills that today's employers value. For third and fourth year students, an internship gives them an opportunity to further their knowledge and skills in an applied setting, while earning academic credit. English - Writing and English - Literature are Bachelor of Arts degrees within the English Department.

EXPECTATIONS

Employers commit to providing a learning experience relevant to the student's area of study and career development. Responsibilities of the employer supervisor include:
