

Your degree means you've gained knowledge and relevant skills for diverse careers, so imagine where your degree can take you.

Roles open to me with my degree:

- Adjudicator
- Composer
- DJ
- Lyricist
- Music director
- Music teacher
- Music therapist intern
- Musical instrument designer/builder
- Musical instrument sales
- Performing artist

With continuing education I can be:

- Broadcaster
- Artistic director
- Audio producer/editor
- Audiologist
- Entertainment lawyer
- Event producer, manager or planner
- Music critic
- Music therapist
- Music professor
- Publicist

Related jobs in other fields:

- Arts administrator
- Camp director
- Copyright consultant
- Historian
- Journalist
- Marketing/event promoter
- Production assistant
- Program researcher
- Television production assistant

Technical skills:

- Develop and implement effective practice regimes
- Interact with a range of audiences
- Music interpretation
- Reading music
- Understand specific instruments

Professional organizations

Connect and learn more about your career

- Canadian Academy of Recording Arts and Sciences
- Canadian Association of Music Therapists
- Canadian Federation of Musicians
- Canadian Independent Music Association
- Canadian Music Centre
- Canadian Music Educators' Association
- Music Canada
- Music Industries Association of Canada
- Music Library Association
- Music Ontario
- Music Publishers Canada
- Screen Composers Guild of Canada
- SOCAN
- Songwriters Association of Canada

Transferable skills:

- Concept visualization
- Creativity
- Critical thinking
- Follow written/oral instructions
- Perform
- Present
- Respond appropriately to constructive criticism
- Strong organization and memory
- Time management
- Work under pressure

Discover further

Discover current trends, wages and jobs in Canada for the Music & Worship field

- Explore your career ideas here
- Find out what Redeemer alumni have done with their degree

