

2018 AT A GLANCE

Redeemer offers 39 different majors and streams that lead to a Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science or Bachelor of Education degree.

DEGREE PROGRAMS

Redeemer is an interdenominational institution with students representing more than 50 different denominations. Our mission statement is based on the Reformed Christian tradition.

AFFILIATION

Eight-month co-op work terms are available for students in Business, Urban & Intercultural Ministry and soon, Kinesiology. Students in all programs can take advantage of internships, volunteer and off-campus opportunities as well as career guidance through the Centre for Experiential Learning and Careers.

EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING

Students can take advantage of a wide range of financial aid options such as scholarships, bursaries, on-campus employment, and government assistance programs. In 2017-18, 87% of students received assistance from various sources, totalling more than $7.2 million.

FINANCIAL AID

For the academic year of 2019-20, enrolment costs are:

$9,800* for Canadian undergraduate tuition

$6,200 for housing

$621 for students fees

$2,348 to $2,748 for Meal plans

*Visit redeemer.ca/tuition-fees to learn about tuition for International (including American) and Bachelor of Education students.

TUITION AND FEES

Redeemer is located on a beautiful 86-acre campus in Ancaster, part of the City of Hamilton, ON. Redeemer's main facilities were constructed in 1985 and consist of one comprehensive academic building, 43 townhouse style residences, 20 apartment-style units, a three-story residence hall and a student recreation centre. The campus includes athletic and recreational facilities for students and off-campus groups. In 2011, in partnership with Ancaster Soccer Club and the City of Hamilton, Redeemer opened a domed athletic facility.

86-ACRES

CAMPUS FEATURES

In the Fall 2017 term, 647 students were enrolled, representing 9 Canadian provinces, 10 US states and 21 other countries.

ENROLMENT

Currently there are 43 full-time and 33 part-time faculty. Faculty members are engaged in teaching, research and service to the community. Redeemer also employs 65 full-time and approximately 21 part-time staff, and 7 coaches.

FACULTY/STAFF

Since the first commencement exercises in 1986, Redeemer has 6,428 alumni who are reflecting the love and hope of Jesus Christ wherever they are called. Approximately 34% of all graduates have continued their education in professional and academic programs in more than 90 graduate schools across Canada, the US and around the world. Redeemer alumni can be found working in a wide range of businesses, social service agencies and public institutions.

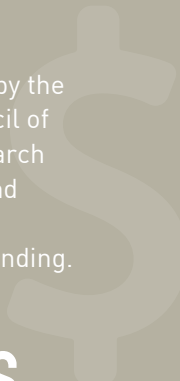

ALUMNI AND GRADUATE EMPLOYMENT STATISTICS

Redeemer faculty conduct high quality research in the humanities, social sciences, and natural sciences. The new Centre for Christian Scholarship supports original research among our talented faculty and extends their influence in the public square.

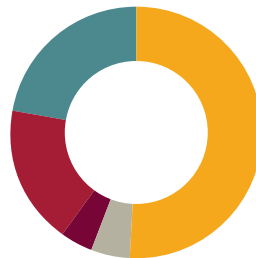

FACULTY RESEARCH

Research activities have been supported in part by the Natural Sciences & Engineering Research Council of Canada, the Social Sciences & Humanities Research Council of Canada and other funding agencies and donors. In 2017-2018, fourteen faculty members received $109,840 in research grants and funding.

RESEARCH EXPENDITURES

- Tuition and Fees – 51%
- Donations – 22%
- Campus Services/Housing – 18%
- Restricted Revenue – 5%
- Other (Grants & Fees) – 4%

SOURCES OF OPERATING REVENUE (2017 – 2018)

The average class size at Redeemer is 20, and classes range from 1 to 100 students. Our student to faculty ratio is 12:1.

CLASS SIZE

